REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Johnson & Weaver aggressively pursues complex litigation matters for both plaintiffs and defendants on an hourly or contingency fee basis depending upon the circumstances of the matter. Below are just a few of the cases the firm has undertaken. To respect the privacy of some of the firm's clients who prefer we do not mention their names involved in litigation, their matters are described below without identifying the parties' names.

Business and Commercial Litigation

- International Real Estate PLC v. Oaktree Capital Management, LLC, Case No. BC 324973 (Los Angeles Superior Court). International Real Estate (a public company with shares listed on the London Stock Exchange) retained Johnson & Weaver's predecessor firm to pursue claims for breach of fiduciary duty against former directors of a joint venture company. That case involved alleged damages of approximately $20 million, and after years of aggressive litigation and a mediation, ultimately settled on favorable terms to International Real Estate. See testimonial from the firm's client below.
- Doe Shipping Company v. John Doe (San Diego Superior Court). A national shipping company retained Johnson & Weaver after a former employee left the company with customer lists, other employees, and other confidential information. Johnson & Weaver filed a complaint alleging claims for fraud, breach of contract, and misappropriation of trade secrets, among others. After a series of depositions and the threat of putting the defendants out of business, Johnson & Weaver assisted the company in obtaining a resolution that restricted the former employee from doing business with certain of the company's clients, protected the company's trade secrets, and provided for a significant monetary payment to the company.
- Liebsohn, et al. v. Augme Technologies, Inc., et al., Case No. 13-2-40007-3 SEA (King County Superior Court, Washington). Johnson & Weaver represented a group of 47 high net worth investors who were defrauded into trading their stock in a privately-held company for stock in a publicly-traded company. After defeating several motions to dismiss and a petition for discretionary review by the Washington Court of Appeals, Johnson & Weaver obtained a highly-favorable confidential settlement from the defendants' insurance carrier on February 2, 2016.

- John Doe v. Doe Hedge Fund (San Diego Superior Court). Johnson & Weaver defended one of the world's most successful hedge funds and its manager against meritless claims of fraud. After aggressively defending the matter, the plaintiff accepted a nuisance value settlement that was less than the cost of defense.

Trials & Arbitrations

- Healthy Life Marketing, LLC, et al. v. Jaime Brenkus' Sound Body, Inc., Case No. GIC822927 (Superior Court for the State of California, County of San Diego). On behalf of a marketing firm, Johnson & Weaver pursued claims for breach of contract and fraud against the manufacturer of a weight loss product. After a week-long jury trial, the jury returned a 7-figure verdict in favor of Johnson & Weaver's client, including actual and punitive damages. See testimonial from the firm's client below.
- DCI Solutions v. Urban Outfitters, (S.D. Cal). Johnson & Weaver represented a small local consulting firm in a litigation against one of the nation's largest clothing retailers in a matter that would have forced the company into bankruptcy if it lost. Following a week-long trial in federal court, the jury returned a verdict rejecting the retailer's $1.5 million damage claim in its entirety. Johnson & Weaver also prevailed on all of Urban Outfitter's post-trial motions.
- Timeshare Resale Alliance v. Fleming, et al. (San Diego Arbitration). Johnson & Weaver successfully defended a real-estate broker accused of stealing her former employer's alleged trade secrets. Following a week-long arbitration, the arbitrator issued an order completely exonerating Johnson & Weaver's client.
- Mary Joe v. Jane Doe (San Diego Superior Court). Johnson & Weaver represented the minority shareholder of a small family corporation to pursue claims against the other shareholders who wasted millions of dollars of corporate assets by using those assets' to pay for their personal expenses. The client retained Johnson & Weaver to substitute into the case just two months before trial. On day four of a five day trial, defendants agreed to settle the case.

Shareholder Derivative Actions

- In re Motorola, Inc. Derivative Litigation, Case No. 07CH23297 (Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois). Johnson & Weaver's predecessor firm was appointed Co-Lead Counsel in a shareholder derivative action filed against current and former officers and directors of Motorola, Inc. The derivative claims charged certain officers with making misrepresentations about the company's financial statements and prospects of success in order to artificially inflate the company's stock price while they personally sold shares and while causing the company to simultaneously purchase shares on the open market. After six years of hard fought litigation the action settled on terms that required the implementation of significant corporate therapeutic changes throughout the company, changes that were valued by one expert at over $1 billion.
- In re Powerwave Technologies, Inc., Case No. 13-10134 (MFW) (Bankr. D. of Del.). On behalf of a shareholder client, Johnson & Weaver filed a shareholder derivative action in a California Superior Court alleging that certain of Powerwave's officers and directors had affirmatively engaged in improper accounting to conceal the company's true financial condition. Shortly after filing this action, Powerwave filed for bankruptcy and the United States Bankruptcy Court appointed a Chapter 7 Trustee. The Bankruptcy Court appointed Johnson & Weaver as special counsel to represent the Trustee to prosecute these claims as assets of the estate. After nearly two years of litigation, Johnson & Weaver secured a settlement that included payment of $5.5 million for the benefit of the estate in bankruptcy.
- Rubin v. Reinhard, Case No. 37-2008-00091039-CU-NP-CTL (San Diego Superior Court). Johnson & Weaver's predecessor firm was sole lead counsel in this derivative lawsuit. After the company filed a petition for relief under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Trustee retained Johnson & Weaver's predecessor firm as special litigation counsel to prosecute claims for breach of fiduciary duty against certain officers and directors. After several years of hard fought litigation, the Estate in Bankruptcy settled recovering $3 million. In approving the settlement, the Bankruptcy Court judge remarked: "The Court thanks Johnson & Weaver for its outstanding work on behalf of the Chapter 7 Trustee and the Estate."

Corporate Takeover Litigation

- Azar v. Blount International, Inc., No. 3:16-CV-00483-SI (D. Or.). Johnson & Weaver was appointed as Co-Lead counsel in a case arising out of the 2016 acquisition of Blount International Inc. by a group comprised of a private equity firm, Blount's largest stockholder, and two Blount insiders. The plaintiffs allege, among other things, that the proxy statement that Blount disseminated in connection with the deal failed to disclose a set of financial projections that best reflected Blount's long-term prospects and, instead, disclosed only later, artificially reduced projections. The plaintiffs allege that misleading proxy statement tainted the stockholder approval of the merger, and they are seeking an unspecified amount of monetary damages. This matter is currently pending.

Securities Class Actions

- Crystal v. Medbox, Inc., Case No. 2:15-CV-00426-BRO-JEM (C.D. Cal). Johnson & Weaver was appointed sole Lead Counsel in this securities class action lawsuit brought pursuant to §§ 10(b), 20(a), and 20(A) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Despite significant obstacles to recovery, including questions regarding the company's ability to continue as a going concern and insurance coverage issues, Johnson & Weaver was able to reach an agreement in principal for a class-wide settlement with all defendants which included a payment of $1.85 million in cash and the issuance of 2.3 million shares of Medbox common stock by the Company and its former Chief Executive Officer. The Court approved the settlement in its entirety on November 14, 2016.
- Desrocher v. Covisint Corporation, et al., Case No. 1:14-CV-03878-AKH (S.D.N.Y.). In a case alleging violations of §§11 and 15 of the Securities Act of 1933, the Court appointed Johnson & Weaver Co-Lead Counsel and certified the firm as Co-Lead Class Counsel. The class action complaint alleged that there were misrepresentations or omissions in documents filed with the SEC in connection with the company's IPO. Under the settlement, defendants agreed to create an $8 million common fund to compensate Covisint stockholders who were harmed by the alleged misrepresentations or omissions, which amount represented a substantial percentage of the maximum potential recovery. The Court approved the settlement in its entirety on December 13, 2016.

- Gerneth v. Chiasma, Inc., et al., Case No. 1:16-cv-11082-DJC (D. Mass.). In a securities class action case alleging violations of §§11 and 15 of the Securities Act of 1933 and §§10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Johnson & Weaver's client was appointed lead plaintiff and the firm was appointed Co-Lead Counsel under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The complaint filed in the action alleges that defendants made false and misleading statements in connection with the Company's IPO and following the IPO regarding the Company's business and the prospects for approval of a pharmaceutical drug. As a result of these false and misleading statements, Chiasma stock traded at artificially inflated prices during the Class Period. This matter is currently pending.
- Hendley v. Flowers Foods, Inc., et al., Master File No. 7:16-cv-00222-WLS (M.D.Ga.). In a case alleging violations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 for the issuance of false and misleading statements, Johnson & Weaver's client was appointed as Lead Plaintiff and the firm was appointed Co-Lead Counsel under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Defendants in the case are charged with making false and/or misleading statements and/or failing to disclose that the Company was improperly classifying employees as independent contractors, that the misclassification exposed the Company to legal liability and/or negative regulatory action, that proper classification would have a negative impact on the Company's operations, and that as a result, defendants' statements about Flowers Foods's business, operations, and prospects were false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis when made. This matter is currently pending.
- Mohanty v. Avid Technology, Inc. et al., Case No. 1:16-cv-12336-IT (D. Mass.) In a case alleging violations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 for the issuance of false and misleading statements, Johnson & Weaver's client was appointed as Lead Plaintiff and the firm was appointed Lead Counsel under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The class action complaint alleges that defendants had concealed from investors that Avid's enterprise customers were deferring purchases and renewals of the Company's core software offering, and that as a result, defendants' statements concerning the Avid's business operations, earnings, and financial prospects lacked a reasonable basis when made. This matter is currently pending.

Consumer Class Actions

- Baker v. Visa International Corp., Case No. 06cv0376 (San Diego Superior Court). Johnson & Weaver's predecessor firm was appointed Co-Lead Counsel for this nationwide consumer class action that was filed in 2006 against Visa International Corp. for wrongfully assessing undisclosed fees on consumers by manipulating the currency conversion rates when consumers used their Visa Card for purchases in other countries. This matter was removed to federal court, and transferred by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York to be coordinated with the In re Currency Conversion Fee Antitrust Litigation. The Court approved a settlement that provided for $336 million for the class members. While the Baker case was not the driving force leading to the $336 million for the class members, it was coordinated with that matter and the firm played a material role in the ultimate settlement.

NOTEWORTHY SUCCESS STORIES

Johnson & Weaver aggressively pursues complex litigation matters for both hourly paying clients and for contingency fee clients. While not an exhaustive list, below are a few of the cases for which the firm has achieved noteworthy successful results for its clients.

A Happy Client Following Trial

On behalf of a marketing firm, Johnson & Weaver pursued claims for breach of contract and fraud against the manufacturer of a weight loss product. After a week-long jury trial, the jury returned a 7-figure verdict in favor of Johnson & Weaver's client including actual and punitive damages. #### Record Setting Class Action Settlement in Washington

In what is believed to be the largest recovery ever obtained in a class action challenging the price of a merger or acquisition of a public company in a Washington court, on January 20, 2017, the court approved a $12.75 million settlement for the benefit of former Flow shareholders. Specifically, the case challenged the fairness of the price shareholders received from the 2014 acquisition of Flow by American Industrial Partners. Johnson & Weaver served as court-appointed Co-Lead Class Counsel.

After three years of hard-fought litigation which included 26 depositions taken throughout the country, defeating defendants' motions to dismiss, defeating defendants' motion for summary judgment, and obtaining an order certifying the class, the parties reached an agreement to settle the case just before trial. "I am proud to be part of a settlement that achieved what is now a rarity, more money for the shareholders in a merger case," said Frank Johnson, one of the founding partners of Johnson & Weaver. Cornerstone Research recently published a report regarding M&A shareholder suits in 2015 and the first half of 2016 reporting that amongst the hundreds of merger-related lawsuits identified, only six of those cases resulted in any monetary recovery for shareholders. The report concluded that in merger-related litigation, "monetary consideration paid to shareholders has remained relatively rare."

Mr. Johnson and W. Scott Holleman were the attorneys at the firm responsible for helping obtain this settlement for shareholders. Englehart v. Brown, Case No. 13-2-33726-6-KNT (King County Superior Court, Washington).

One of the Largest Recoveries in a Derivative Case in Tennessee

Johnson & Weaver was appointed sole Lead Counsel in this shareholder derivative action against certain current and former officers and directors of HCA Holdings, Inc., the largest private hospital chain in the country. The derivative claims related to similar facts that resulted in the company paying $215 million to settle a class action lawsuit filed by shareholders who alleged the company used false and misleading information to sell stock during its 2011 initial public offering.

The parties litigated the action for more than four years and attended multiple mediations, after which Johnson & Weaver secured an extremely favorable settlement for HCA and its shareholders, including a payment of $19 million to HCA (believed to be among the largest recoveries in a derivative case in the State of Tennessee), the appointment of a new independent director, and implementation of significant corporate therapeutics. Bagot and Steinberg v. Bracken, et al., Case No. 11C5133 (Sixth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee).

Helped Secure $24 million for the Company

Johnson & Weaver's predecessor firm was initially appointed Co-Lead Counsel in state court in one of the highest-profile cases in the country challenging the award of backdated stock options by executive officers of Brocade. For years, Brocade's insiders engaged in a secret stock option backdating scheme designed to reward executives and recruit engineers with stock options priced below their fair market value as of the date of the grants. The U.S. Government pursued and ultimately won criminal convictions against the responsible executives.

On behalf of its client, Johnson & Weaver's predecessor firm helped prevent an inadequate settlement of a related federal action from being approved, which would have released the officers, directors, and agents of the company responsible for the criminal backdating scheme resulting in no money to the company and only a payment of attorney's fees for the lawyers. Brocade then formed a Special Litigation Committee and retained Johnson & Weaver's predecessor firm as co-counsel to Brocade to help litigate claims against ten former officers and directors of the company. After years of litigation, over $24 million was recovered for Brocade. In re Brocade Communications, Systems, Inc. Derivative Litigation, Case No. 1:05cv41683 (Santa Clara Superior Court).

Helped Secure $29 Million for Shareholders

Johnson & Weaver's predecessor firm was appointed Co-Lead Counsel in a derivative lawsuit that involved claims against the officers and directors of Titan Corporation for breach of fiduciary duty. During the pendency of the litigation, Titan announced that it would be acquired, threatening to cause the shareholders in the derivative action to lose standing. Johnson & Weaver's predecessor firm then coordinated with counsel in a related derivative action pending in Delaware to negotiate a settlement that resulted in $29 million in increased consideration to Titan's shareholders in the all-cash merger acquisition. In re the Titan Corp. Derivative Litigation, Case No. GIC 832018 (San Diego Superior Court).

Settlements Requiring Stricter Company Controls:

- In re MannKind Corporation Derivative Litigation, Lead Case No. 11-cv-05003-GAF-SSx (United States District Court for the Central District of California). Johnson & Weaver was appointed sole Lead Counsel in this shareholder derivative action filed against current and former officers and directors of MannKind, alleging that the defendants had misled shareholders about the FDA approval process for MannKind's core product. After more than two years of litigation and a mediation, this matter settled on terms that required the implementation of significant corporate therapeutic changes, including the creation of a new Board-level Disclosure & Controls Committee and significant enhancements to financial reporting requirements.

- Singh v. Hsu, Case No. 1-13-cv-243247 (Superior Court of California for the County of Santa Clara). Johnson & Weaver was appointed sole Lead Counsel in this shareholder derivative action against certain current and former officers and directors of Impax Laboratories, Inc. for allegedly failing to correct systemic problems at the company's manufacturing centers and for misleading shareholders about FDA sanctions related to these problems. After two years of litigation and a mediation, the matter settled on terms requiring the implementation of company-wide corporate governance reforms, significantly enhancing reporting and oversight at the Board, officer, and employee level.
- In re LHC Group, Inc. Derivative Litigation, Case No. 6:13-CV-02899-JTT-CBW (United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana). Johnson & Weaver was appointed Co-Lead Counsel in this shareholder derivative action filed against current and former officers and directors of LHC Group, Inc., alleging that the defendants breached their fiduciary duties by, among other things, causing the Company to manipulate the number of therapy visits provided to patients in its home health care segment in order to improperly maximize Medicare reimbursements, thereby artificially inflating the Company's revenues, and disseminating false and misleading statements regarding the Company's financial results. After two years of litigation, this case was resolved on terms that included substantial reforms to the Company's corporate governance including, among other things, amendments to the Company's compliance policies to address the allegations concerning its Medicare home health care program and to the Audit Committee Charter to provide for greater oversight over the Company's compliance-related activities, Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement policies, compliance audits, the handling of anonymous complaints, and the effectiveness of LHC's Code of Conduct. The settlement also caused changes to be made to the Company's insider trading and pre-clearance policies to provide more clarity and transparency and additional restrictions on insiders' sales of LHC stock, and caused the Board to establish lead independent director guidelines to address Plaintiffs' allegations concerning the Individual Defendants' breaches of fiduciary duty of loyalty.
- In re Uni-Pixel, Inc. Shareholder Derivative Litigation, Case No. 2014-08251 (District Court of Harris County, Texas, 165th Judicial District). Johnson & Weaver was appointed sole Lead Counsel in this shareholder derivative action filed against current and former officers and directors of Uni-Pixel, Inc. This matter was settled on terms that require the implementation of substantial corporate governance reforms for a period of no less than five years which included, among other things, the formalization of the non-executive chairman role, the creation of a disclosure and controls committee, and the revision of the Company's insider trading protocol, specifically the preclearance procedure related to certain executive trades.

- Green Meadows Partners, LLP v. Tompkinson (Impac Mortgage Securities Litigation), Case No. SACV 06-91 (United States District Court for the Central District of California). The Honorable Cormac Carney appointed Johnson & Weaver's predecessor firm Co-Lead Counsel in a case where seven derivative complaints and competing motions for lead counsel had been filed. After a year and a half of litigation, Judge Carney approved the settlement agreement that required implementation of significant corporate therapeutic changes for the benefit of the company and its shareholders for years to come.
- In re BTU International, Inc. Stockholders Litigation, Consolidated C.A. No. 10310-CB (Del. Ch.). Johnson & Weaver played a key role in the case, which challenged the merger between BTU International, Inc. and Amtech System, Inc., obtaining a waiver of preclusive "Don't Ask, Don't Waive" provisions in standstill agreements with certain bidders, as well as securing extensive additional disclosures before the shareholder vote on the merger.
- In re Heelys Inc. Derivative Litigation, Case No. 07-CV-1682 (United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas). Johnson & Weaver's predecessor firm was appointed Co-Lead Counsel in this shareholder derivative action filed against current and former officers and directors of Heelys Inc. After prevailing on defendants' motion to dismiss and more than a year of litigation including multiple mediations, this matter settled on terms that required the implementation of significant corporate therapeutic changes that benefitted the company and its shareholders for years to come.

TESTIMONIALS

“There’s no question in my mind that this settlement is in the best interest of this Estate. So I’m prepared to approve it. . . . But I want to compliment Mr. Johnson, and I want to compliment on the successful recovery for the Estate. The creditors thank you, and I thank you.” In re Artes Medical, Inc., (Bankr. S.D. Cal., Case No. 08-12317-LT7) (approving a $3 million settlement recovered for the estate of a bankrupt public company after the Chapter 7 Trustee retained Johnson & Weaver to pursue claims for breach of fiduciary against the directors). In approving the final award of attorneys’ fees, Judge Taylor further stated: “The Court thanks Johnson & Weaver for its outstanding work on behalf of the Chapter 7 Trustee and the Estate.”

fiduciary duty for millions of dollars against former directors of a company formed in England. I have retained law firms throughout the world and found Johnson & Weaver's services to be superb. They were very responsive and grasped complex corporate matters involving international real estate transactions. They aggressively litigated my company's claims against several defendants who were represented by one of the largest law firms in the world. This case was very complex and complicated and involved three jurisdictions (U.S., Europe, and Sweden). They played an instrumental role in bringing the whole case to a successful settlement out of court. We ultimately reached a resolution short of trial with which I was very pleased."

"While I was the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for a publicly traded company, I consulted Frank Johnson on various legal issues. As CFO I was responsible for SEC reporting requirements and compliance with GAAP. In addition, I successfully completed the public offering of the company's stock which was a consistent top performer on the NASDAQ from 1998 to 1999. During the ten years I've known him, I've been very impressed with Mr. Johnson's integrity, business acumen, and understanding of complex securities issues. Based upon these factors, I retained Mr. Johnson and Mr. Weaver to represent me in matters where it appeared that a public company's officers or directors engaged in fraudulent conduct to the detriment of the company's shareholders (of which I was one). As a former CFO for a public company and as a shareholder, I can say with confidence that this firm has proven to be aggressive and astute in identifying claims for fraudulent conduct in connection with the sale of publicly traded securities."

"While I was assistant general counsel for GNC Corporation, a publicly traded company at the time, I had the good fortune of working with Frank Johnson as GNC's lawyer. While he was at Sheppard Mullin, he successfully defended GNC in several matters, including a consumer class action and various business litigation matters. I have since left GNC Corporation and am now a partner at one of the largest law firms in the country. I have worked with both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Weaver on various matters, including a jury trial in San Diego, California.

“In 2004, Axeus, Inc. was using Sheppard Mullin, a large law firm, for nearly all of its legal matters. When Frank Johnson, who was then a partner at Sheppard Mullin, announced that he was departing to start his own law firm, I did not hesitate in my decision to send all of Axeus’s litigation work to Mr. Johnson. At the time, Axeus was embroiled in a huge legal battle involving more than 20,000 pages of evidence and millions of dollars. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Weaver helped Axeus successfully resolve that matter and have since handled several litigation matters for Axeus, all with outstanding results. I have worked with many different law firms over the years and I can say with confidence that Mr. Johnson is one of the best lawyers I’ve worked with. He understands what is important to his clients: excellent legal work and value. While other firms may be less expensive, Johnson & Weaver provides value for its fees.”

“Johnson Law Firm, one of the founding partners of Johnson & Weaver, was Awesome! They were professional, organized and as evidenced by juror testimonials following a one-week jury trial.... extremely effective. On claims for breach of contract and fraud, Johnson Law Firm won a 7 figure verdict for me and my company and I will forever be grateful. You never realize how important it is to have a good attorney until you need one!”

Energy has used Johnson & Weaver, for all of its business litigation matters, from general business disputes to successfully getting a baseless class action dismissed. Both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Weaver are aggressive, have a strong work ethic and, of utmost importance to me, have unquestionable integrity. I have the utmost faith and confidence in Johnson & Weaver.”

“I contacted Brett Weaver after my elderly stepfather was sued. From the outset, it was clear that Mr. Weaver was looking for a practical way to resolve the dispute quickly rather than ways to rack up his fees. Thanks to some creative and aggressive lawyering, not only did Mr. Weaver get the case dismissed; he got the other side’s attorney to pay him his fees. My stepfather and I are forever grateful to Mr. Weaver . I would strongly recommend Johnson & Weaver, LLP to anyone needing a good attorney.”

Michael Lo

“I first retained Johnson & Weaver when my husband and I became concerned with what I thought looked like wrongful conduct by executive management at one of the publicly traded companies in which we had invested. Mr. Johnson always clearly communicated his strategy and the underlying legal reasons why it needed to be done that particular way. Most importantly, he always responded to any questions or concerns in a timely manner and consistently updated us without overwhelming us with complicated details. We were very happy with the outcome of the securities case. When I needed a lawyer again to help me with employment matters, I retained the firm again. Mr. Weaver demonstrated that he was well informed and helped me get a settlement with which I was very pleased. I would highly recommend Johnson & Weaver their team and I would not hesitate to use them again.”
